

British Values at Holway Park

Holway Park Community School recognises the multi-cultural, multi faith and ever changing nature of the United Kingdom. The school as a community school accepts admissions from all those entitled to an education under British Law, including pupils of all faiths or none.

The school ensures that the five areas as defined by the Government are taught in school, the five areas are:

- democracy
- the rule of law
- individual liberty
- mutual respect
- tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

The school does this through a wide range of activities incorporated in PSHE, our work on the UNICEF Rights Responsible Schools Award, Assemblies and other workshops and lessons, please see the attached pages for more details.
