

Year 2/3: Summer - Geography: Kenya Knowledge Organiser

Key Facts and Information

Kenya is located in East Africa, on the Equator.

The words five oceans are called: Atlantic, Pacific, Indian, Sothern and Arctic.

The worlds seven continents are called: Africa, Australia, Antarctica, Asia, Europe, North America and South America.

Key Questions

- Can you name and locate the worlds seven continents?
- Can you name and locate the worlds five oceans?
- Can you compare Kenya and Somerset?
- Where is Kenya?
- What is the weather like in Kenya?
- What is a mountain? Are there any in Kenya?
- How is my home different to Kenya?

Learning Objectives

LO: To name and locate the worlds seven continents and five oceans.

LO: To use maps, atlases and globes to identify the UK, continents and oceans Kenya and Africa.

LO: To use maps, atlases and globes to identify Kenya and Africa.

LO: To describe the human and physical characteristics of Kenya.

To understand the geographical similarities and differences of Somerset and Nairobi

Vocabulary

Continent	Land mass defined by physical, human or cultural features.
Mountain	Large landform, often with a peak, rising and earth rising high above the surrounding area; higher and steeper than a hill.
Ocean	Oceans are the largest body of water.
Kenya	A country in Africa.
Nairobi	The capital city of Kenya

